

PARADISE SERVICE TECHNOLOGIES

PRIVACY POLICY

This privacy policy sets out how “Paradise Service Technologies” uses and protects any information that you give when you use our website.

“Paradise Service Technologies” is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this website, you can then be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

“Paradise Service Technologies” may change this policy from time to time by updating this page. Only the most current policy will be in effect and shall be available for user’s review from the company’s web site.

What we collect

We often collect the following information, but may also include additional fields which are appropriately labeled as to their content:

- A person’s first and last name
- Contact information including email address and telephone number
- Other information relevant to customer service requests

What we do with the information we gather

We may use the information to improve our products and services.

We may periodically send promotional e-mail about new products, special offers or other information which we think you may find interesting using the e-mail address which you have provided.

From time to time, we may also use your information to contact you to assure quality customer care and satisfaction. We may contact you by e-mail, phone, fax or mail.

We may use the information to customize the website according to your interests.

We will never sell nor distribute your information.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorized access or disclosure we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

We use secure socket layer (SSL) encryption technology that protects the transmission and storage of sensitive information, such as credit card transactions.

How we use cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyze web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyze data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to enable you to visit other websites of interest easily. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Controlling your personal information

You may choose to restrict the collection or use of your personal information by not submitting information through our web site and instead request services directly through our direct telephone service of (954) 563-0110.
